

ROSEMARIE LANDRY

Soprano
Voice Teacher

Soprano, voice teacher, and co-head of Voice program at the Faculty of Music at the University of Montreal, Rosemarie Landry has sung on all the major Canadian stages, in either recital, concert, or opera. She was a guest artist of major orchestras and of numerous opera and chamber music festivals throughout the world and toured extensively with pianist Dalton Baldwin. Winning First Prize at the coveted CBC Young Artists Competition early in her career, Ms. Landry went on to win numerous other prizes and scholarships, and was awarded many honorary doctorates. She has given master classes in places such as Le Conservatoire supérieur de musique de Paris, the conservatories of Beijing, Tokyo, Reykjavik, Cracovia, and Bogota, and at the Juilliard School in New York. She also gives master classes in many Canadian universities and opera companies, and teaches in a number of vocal art summer schools and venues, such as the International Vocal Art Institute (IVAI), Le Centre d'Arts Orford, and the Vancouver International Song Institute. For years, Ms. Landry has been actively involved as artistic advisor or member of the board of directors with many of the major cultural and musical organizations in Canada. She is a member of the Order of Canada, Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres of France, and Chevalier de l'Ordre de la Pléiade. In 2014 she received the prestigious Opera Canada Ruby Award, which honors outstanding individual achievement onstage and behind the scenes.
